THE MOST HOLY BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST

FIRST READING: EXODUS 24:3-8

Moses explained to the people the commandments he had received from God. Upon hearing them, the entire community immediately agreed they would do as God had told them. Moses then sacrificed young bulls and sprinkled the people with their blood, calling it the blood of the covenant they had made.

SECOND READING: HEBREWS 9:11-15

Jesus did not offer God the blood of sacrifices, but instead he offered up his own blood to cleanse all people of the transgressions they had committed under the first covenant with God. Christ instead brought a new covenant, which, if kept, would lead to eternal life.

GOSPEL: MARK 14:12-16, 22-26

Jesus sent two of his disciples to prepare the Passover supper. During the meal he blessed bread and offered it to them saying, "This is my body." He then offered them wine and called it his blood, "the blood of the covenant, to be poured out on behalf of many."

SAINT OF THE WEEK

COLUMBA

circa 521 - 597

FEAST JUNE 9

This abbot, one of Scotland's patron saints, was born in Ireland. Also educated and ordained in Ireland, he spent 15 years preaching and founding monasteries, including Derry, Durrow and Kells. But his clashes with King Diarmaid over a psalter copy and the rights of sanctuary resulted in a clan feud and battle in which 3,000 men died. Choosing exile as his penance, Columba left for Scotland with 12 kinsmen about 561 to found the island monastery of Iona. He evangelized the Picts and converted their king. Iona monks went on mission all over Europe and its monastic rule was the standard until the Rule of St. Benedict. Columba, also called Colmcille (for Columba and cell), had enormous influence over Western monasticism.

POPE'S CORNER

IN THE BATTLE AGAINST EVIL

The main character [in one Gospel story] is a widow whose insistent pleading with a dishonest judge succeeds in obtaining justice from him ... This image of prayer is striking, but let us ask ourselves: Why does God want this? Doesn't he already know what we need? What does it mean to "insist" with God?

This is a good question that makes us examine an important aspect of the Faith: God invites us to pray insistently not because he is unaware of our needs or because he is not listening to us. On the contrary, he is always listening, and he knows everything about us lovingly. On our daily journey, especially in times of difficulty, in that battle against the evil that is outside and within us, the Lord is not far away, he is by our side.

- Angelus, October 20, 2013

Reflection: Are there situations or people that you pray for insistently? Have you been at it so long that you think God will never answer? Reflect on the widow in this story and recollect that God is present to you. Be assured that he hears your prayer and is waiting to respond with mercy.

Today we remember Jesus' creation of the Most Holy Eucharist on Holy Thursday at The Last Supper. The feast of Corpus Christi began in the 13th century and after having this name for hundreds of years, in 1970, the name was officially changed to The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ. Even after the change, many people still refer to the feast as Corpus Christi.
