Sacramental Celebrations

Baptism joyfully celebrates the entrance of members into our Catholic Church. Baptisms are celebrated on Saturday mornings, following preparation of the parents. Baptisms for adults take place through the RCIA process. For more information contact Andreja Mezek.

Couples should contact the parish office as soon as they are able, at least six months in advance of the desired wedding date to make arrangements for marriage preparation. Any inquires should be sent to the parish office.

Our parish continues Christ's ministry of healing to those who suffer physical or emotional ills with the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick. Please call the parish office if you would like to receive this sacrament.

Our parish also wants to assist with the passing of a loved one. In death life is changed, not ended, because of our faith in the Resurrection. Please contact the office so that our staff can help you with the funeral arrangements.

Liturgical Worship

"The liturgy is the summit toward which the activity of the Church is directed; at the same time it is the font from which all her power flows."* (Sacrosanctum Concilium)

Active participation in our worship of God fosters growth in faith, hope and charity for all the faithful, but particular ministries help in that participation. If you would like to be a lector (a reader of Sacred Scripture), an acolyte (a minister who assists the priest at the altar), or an extraordinary minister of Holy Communion (a minister who helps distribute the Eucharist), please contact Tina Lindberg.

"Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly, singing psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs with gratitude in your hearts to God" (Col 3:16). If you would like to be a part of our music ministry, please contact Frank Conlon: frankconlon@comcast.net

Pastor's Corner

Dear Parishioners and Friends,

We are well into the Easter Season as we celebrate the 3rd Sunday of Easter. It is time for us to delve deeply into the mysteries we celebrate in the Resurrection of Jesus and the Eucharist. These two mysteries are intimately intertwined. Jesus instituted the Eucharist, the consecration of bread and wine into His Body and Blood. It is only after the Resurrection that the Disciples come to understand that they are receiving the Body and Blood of the Lord sacramentally.

We are a people who have witnessed the mercy and power of the Lord in our own lives. We have heard and believed the reports of the Apostles, who witnessed the resurrected body of Jesus Christ. We have seen the working of the Holy Spirit in our world. This same Spirit raised Jesus from the dead. Presently we are called to evangelize and bring this good news to others, beginning first with the people we know and then to others. This is a matter of speaking out our beliefs and also living out what we believe.

In further news of our 75th Anniversary celebrations, we will have a special Mass on June 11, 2023, at 12:00pm. The Celebrant of this Mass will be Bishop Juan Esposito-Garcia. We are also looking into the possibility of having an outdoor Eucharistic Procession around the block of Annunciation Church following the 10:00am Mass. Following the Mass at 12:00pm, we will have a parish picnic on the grounds of the parish. These events will require many volunteers. Please come out and celebrate this significant anniversary of our parish.

God's Peace,
Fr. Mike

CHARLES COUNTY HOUSE & GARDEN PILGRIMAGE

On April 29th, St. Mary's Newport will be a featured site for the Maryland House and Garden Pilgrimage. Moreover, they will be donating all the proceeds raised to St. Mary's.

Saint Mary's Church, located off the rural roads in southern Charles County, was built in 1954 upon a historic tract of land, which was first colonized by the English in the 17th century. Most of the region's Catholic families lived in the area at that time. Site of the 1840 Brick Chapel, our Special Project, Greek revival in style, the exterior features large twelve-over-twelve windows with marble sills and corbeled eaves. The interior is a large vaulted room and elaborate stenciling decorates the ceiling and walls, most of which survives intact. The site is further enhanced by the largest and most intact pre-Civil War Catholic cemetery, holding an unusually large amount of highly artistic quality monuments. Father Matthew Fish, current pastor, has a green thumb evidenced by the beautiful gardens and gazebo plantings around the 1954 church. A more peaceful setting can't be found

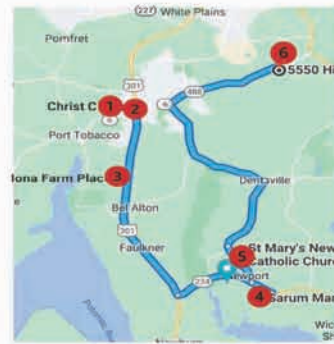

Only five years after Saint John Vianney was canonized in 1925 by Pope Pius XI in Rome, Father William Baldus, the pastor of Saint Mary Newport, established a shrine with the permission of Cardinal William Gibbons, the Archbishop of Baltimore. The shrine includes a nearly life-sized statue of Saint John donated by a New York benefactor and a first-class relic of the Cure sent to Father Baldus by the then Cure of Ars in France.

A FOCUS RETREAT: THE SPIRITUAL IMPACT BOOT CAMP

“The Spirit of the Lord always remembers every individual, and wishes, particularly through you young people, to ‘stir up the wind and fire’ of a new Pentecost in the world.” Pope Benedict XVI shared these words to encourage young people today to pursue a relationship with the Holy Spirit, the powerful yet somewhat mysterious Third Person of the Trinity.

Participants will be introduced to the Holy Spirit through a variety of talks, Scripture passages, and prayer periods aimed at inviting this “New Pentecost” into our lives. If you are seeking a way to kindle (or rekindle) the “fire” of your spiritual life, let this retreat show you how to bring the flame of the Holy Spirit with you wherever you go.

The retreat led by FOCUS Missionary Jessica Navin and Father James Brent, O.P., is from Fri, May 19, 2023 - 06:30 PM through Sat, May 20, 2023 - 10:30 PM. $60 for adults and $25 for students, lodging is not included. It will be held at Margot Hall of St. Anthony of Padua Catholic Church located at 3400 12th Street Northeast Washington, DC 20017. Participants must be 18 years and older.

Gospel Today

Third Sunday of Easter | Luke 24:13-35

On the way to Emmaus Jesus appeared as a stranger to two of His disciples and spoke to them on the scriptures. That evening during dinner He took bread, said the blessing, broke it and gave it to them. (Luke 24:30) At once they recognized Him and He disappeared from their view. Knowing in their hearts it was Jesus, they returned to Jerusalem to tell the others.

ANNUNCIATION BOOK CLUB

Jesus and the Jewish Roots of the Eucharist: Unlocking the Secrets of the Last Supper* by Brant Pitre is the book chosen for April.

Jesus and the Jewish Roots of the Eucharist shines fresh light on the Last Supper by looking at it through Jewish eyes. Using his in-depth knowledge of the Bible and ancient Judaism, Dr. Brant Pitre answers questions such as: What was the Passover like at the time of Jesus? What were the Jewish hopes for the Messiah? What was Jesus' purpose in instituting the Eucharist during the feast of Passover? And, most important of all, what did Jesus mean when he said, "This is my body... This is my blood"?

To answer these questions, Pitre explores ancient Jewish beliefs about the Passover of the Messiah, the miraculous Manna from heaven, and the mysterious Bread of the Presence. As he shows, these three keys—the Passover, the Manna, and the Bread of the Presence—have the power to unlock the original meaning of the Eucharistic words of Jesus. Along the way, Pitre also explains how Jesus united the Last Supper to his death on Good Friday and his Resurrection on Easter Sunday.

ALL ARE WELCOME!

Inspiring and informative, Jesus and the Jewish Roots of the Eucharist is a groundbreaking work that is sure to illuminate one of the greatest mysteries of the Christian faith: the mystery of Jesus' presence in "the breaking of the bread."
