FOURTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

FIRST READING: ISAIAH 66:10-14c

Isaiah instructs the people of Jerusalem to rejoice, because God would restore her prosperity. The people will better understand God's power through their homeland's restoration.

SECOND READING: GALATIANS 6:14-18

Paul describes the sign of the cross of Jesus as all that is significant. Following the old laws is unimportant. Instead, being baptized in Christ and adhering to his ideals is what matters most.

GOSPEL: LUKE 10:1-12, 17-20

Jesus sent forth seventy-two disciples to preach his good news, telling them "the harvest is rich, but the workers few." He also gave them detailed instructions on how to act towards the people. Jesus then reminded them not to be happy because of their power over evil, but to rejoice in the salvation they would achieve.

CELEBRATING THE SACRAMENTS

BAPTISM: The sacrament joyfully celebrates the entrance of members into our Catholic community. Baptisms are celebrated on Saturday mornings at 9:45am or by appointment, following preparation of the parents. Baptisms for adults take place through the RCIA process.

CONFIRMATION: "Through the sacrament of confirmation, the baptized are more perfectly bound to the church and are enriched with a special strength of the Holy Spirit." Confirmation is offered to adults through the RCIA process, and annually for our eighth-grade students. As with the other sacraments of initiation, preparation is involved.

MATRIMONY: Couples should contact the parish office as soon as possible or at least six months in advance of the desired wedding date to make arrangements for preparation.

RITE OF CHRISTIAN INITIATION FOR ADULTS: For those who are interested in finding out more information about the Catholic faith and/or interested in becoming Catholic. Please call the parish office.

ANointing OF THE SICK: Our parish continues Christ's ministry of making whole the members of our community who suffer physical or emotional ills with Anointing of the Sick. Please call the parish office if you would like to receive this sacrament.

PASTOR'S CORNER

Dear Sisters, Brothers and Friends,

I give thanks to the Lord for he has brought me forth from my trials. You have been a blessing to me with all your prayers and support and I give thanks to God for each of you. You have and will continue to be in my prayers.

The Gospel, Luke 10:1-12, 17-20, for the 14th Sunday in Ordinary Time helps us to remember each of us has a responsibility to serve the Lord by serving one another. We bring the truth of God's infinite love and mercy to all whom we encounter. This Gospel passage follows up upon Jesus' call to follow Him. He does not say where He is going but to follow for He goes before us. He assures us that He will be there with us and strengthen us for whatever we may encounter.

In following the Lord, we may find ourselves going to strange and unwelcoming places. We may even find ourselves being asked to leave but we still have the responsibility to announce that the Kingdom of God is at hand. The Lord will go before us, protect us, and plant the seed of His truth.

The news of the repeal of Roe v. Wade, brings to us the reality that we must do more to love and support our brothers and sisters. They must always know we have their eternal good uppermost in our hearts with the Lord to guide our words and actions. We are a people who work for a culture of life for all people. At every step of life's journey, for all people, in all circumstances they should see in us the Heart of Christ Jesus and the Immaculate Heart of Mary.

May God's peace bless our country this Independence weekend. Please be safe.

Fr. Mike

SAINT OF THE WEEK

SAINT AUGUSTINE
ZHAO RONG & THE MARTYRS OF CHINA

17th — 20th Centuries

Feast Day: July 9

The 120 martyrs of China were canonized by Pope John Paul II in 2000. They were killed by various Chinese dynasties over a 400-year period. The group consists of 87 Chinese converts and 33 foreign missionaries, mainly European; they were bishops, priests, seminarians, lay men and women, and children. Augustine Zhao Rong is honored by name because he was the first Chinese diocesan priest to be executed. As a soldier, he had guarded a Catholic bishop held prisoner, and was so moved by the bishop's demeanor that he became a Christian and a priest. He died in 1815 after being tortured. At their canonization, the pope said the martyrs had "a state of mind marked by deep serenity and joy."

AN ACT OF SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.

I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul.

Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart.

I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You.

Never permit me to be separated from You.

Amen

JOHN PAUL II IN AMERICA: UNITING A CONTINENT

The papacy of St. John Paul II left an indelible mark on our homeland. Driven a conviction to unite the Americas under the patronage of Our Lady of Guadalupe, he traveled from Argentina all the way to Alaska, shaping a generation and changing history along the way. In celebration of our country this week, enjoy this film documenting the journeys of John Paul II, the "Pilgrim Pope."

WALKING THROUGH THE VALLEY OF THE SHADOW OF DEATH BY ADM. JEREMIAH DENTON

Admiral Jeremiah Denton spent over seven years as a prisoner of war in Vietnam. In this moving presentation, he recalls how, through the power of prayer, he withstood extreme torture rather than betray God or the U.S.A. For his valor, he was awarded the Purple Heart, the Distinguished Flying Cross, the Air Medal, the Navy Cross, and the POW Medal. He is now a champion of various humanitarian causes. Enjoy his testimony in this talk!
